WITH THE IMMUNES.

The Intelligencer's Soldier Correspondent in Cuba

TELLS OF EXPERIENCES THERE.

THE CONDITION OF THE RECONCENTRADOS IS SHOCKING—THE CUBAN'S ANTI-PATHY FOR WORK STANDS OUT PROMINENTLY—THE BETTER CLASS OF CUBANS DESIRE ANNEXATION—THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED PEOPLE FED DAILY BY CAPTAIN FRANZHEIM.

From Our Soldier Correspondent.

MANZANILLA, CUBA, Province of Santiago De Cuba, Oct. 29.—During the trip on the transport, much of the sickness among the men was due to the very poorly ventilated condition of the troop deck, ventilation being by means of a few hatch-ways and two foul air fans which ran only part of the time. Many of the men stayed on deck the entire trip, being unable to go below.

Friday, October 21, Colonel James S. Pettit, commanding Fourth United States Volunteer Infantry, was announced as military ruler of Manzanillo and vicinity. Many Cuban officers were present when the notice was made public and they appeared to be very well satisfied.

Sunday, General Rabi, of the Cuban army, made a visit to town. A parade of Cubans was held, fireworks set off in the park, and a banquet was given by the Cuban officers. The jollification extended until daylight Monday morning. Not much sleep was indulged in by the American soldiers.

A telephone line is being put up, connecting all parts of the city, the work being done by American soldiers.

At the government store 3,500 people are fed daily, the majority of them being reconcentrados living near the city. It is indeed a sight never to be forgotten, to see these starving, half-naked people pushing and fighting each other for food. Many of them are nothing but living skeletons, being hardly able to walk. If the United States had not stepped in when she did, these people would be dead and dying of starvation. These people live in rude huts built of palm bark and roofed with palm leaves. Cooking is done in the middle of the house, the smoke finding egress by means of the windows and door. The children run through the streets stark naked, having no clothes to wear.

It is reported here that the Cubans will not lag down their arms until they are paid for three years' service. If this is done they say the United States can have Cuba and be welcome to it. In an interview with an intelligent English-speaking Cuban he said the educated class of Cubans wanted to become a state or province, under the protecting folds of the American flag, but among the uneducated and ignorant class of Cubans who have a wild and fanatic idea of freedom, thinking it means to do just as you please and not to be restricted by law whatever these are the people who want the absolute independence of Cuba. One thing the Cubans are very much opposed to is making them work with pick and shovel. They look at work with the eyes of an American tramp and have the same respect for it. A gang has been put to work cleaning the ground around the barracks. They are becoming Americanized very rapidly, having struck three times since they started to work. During the war the Spanish army was greatly increased by the native soldiers, known as volunteers. These soldiers were men who were given the choice of joining the Spanish army or going to prison. Many of them, not wishing to become political prisoners, enlisted, but their sympathies were on the other side.

The water used for drinking is boiled and the men are prohibited from staying out in the sun between 11 and 3 in the day time. We have no drills.

Company G has changed its quarters and now occupies what was formerly a Spanish military hospital. It is situated on a hill overlooking the town and is a much cleaner place than our former quarters. During the march from the old barracks some one in the company placed a fifteen-pound cannon ball in Bugler Lowry's knapsack. He carried it the entire distance and only remarked that his knapsack never before seemed to weigh a ton. When he found the cause of it, he made a solemn vow to get even with the fellow who did it. It took a life-time.

Captain Franzheim has charge of the government store and sees to the Cubans getting their rations. Privates Bahra and Wordeck have been detailed in this department.

Private Wilbert Little has been taken with typhoid fever, and he is now confined in the hospital. The boys hope he will soon be able to join the company.

Privates Snider, Calvert and Hunter treated the boys to some fine honey Thursday morning. They found it while out on a little exploring trip in the country.

Corporal Hannard is learning Spanish very fast and hopes to be able to teach a class when we get back to Wheeling.

Corporal Lowry has been slightly indisposed, but is improving and will soon be himself again. B. S. H.

FRANK WALTHERS DEAD.

On Saturday afternoon occurred the death of Frank Walther, of the South Side. Apoplexy was the cause and death came most unexpectedly. He was in his place of business only fifteen minutes before his death. Mr. Walther possessed a host of friends who will regret to hear of the sad occurrence. The funeral occurs to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be under the auspices of Black Prince lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias, of which the deceased was a member. The lodge will meet at the castle hall at 1 o'clock sharp.

THE CONDUCTOR DISMISSED.

The conductor of a Bridgeport Pike street car, who assaulted Mr. Coen in front of his home at Brookside, recently, has been dismissed by the company. When Mr. Coen stepped from the car, he was followed to the curb stone by the conductor, who asked him why he had called him a vile name. Mr. Coen denied having done anything of the kind. The conductor struck him in the face, knocking him down and was punishing him severely when he was stopped by the motorman.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the attack has appeared, it will prevent croupy coughs from appearing, and many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand, and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon, and is pleasant to take. For sale by druggists.

SCHOOL MELANGE.

At a meeting of the C. and D. teachers of Ritchie school, held on Wednesday, Superintendent Anderson gave a very instructive talk to the teachers, taking for the foundation of his remarks the question: "What are my faults as a teacher?" He did not ask the teachers to tell him what their faults were; they might answer the question to themselves. He then proceeded to give what he considered were faults among teachers.

1. Not to have a proper conception of the work in which they are engaged. This seems to be a very common fault, judging from the action of teachers. They act as though the great object was to put in the time in hearing recitations and drawing their salaries. The teacher's work is the greatest work in the world in many respects. It is the making of men and women of our boys and girls. In short, the great work is character building. How many of us fill the bill?

2. Not getting the best results in discipline. In speaking on this point, he urged the teachers to examine themselves, to get on the right side of the school in the teacher's favor, &c. Every teacher ought to make it a study to know just how to do these things. There is a good spot in the heart of every pupil. Teacher, find it. He then urged on the teacher the necessity of the proper use of our mother tongue. So many of us make mistakes every day in the use of language. We do this in the presence of our pupils. We know better, but the habit of the careless use of language has so grown on us that we misuse it, and do not really notice that we have done so. The teacher, above all others, ought to use good, pure English, and especially ought he or she be careful to do so in the presence of those being taught.

Mr. Anderson placed several words on the board, such as lie and lay, rise and raise, have the set, &c., and called attention to their misuse in numerous instances. He urged on the teacher to study the dispositions of their pupils, and try to lead them to do right for the sake of the right. It is far better to rule by love than by fear; still, the necessity may arise at times when force must be used to compel obedience.

Our schools have all been supplied with tellurians and historical charts, and the board of education has also contracted for a full supply of geographical maps. These are all right, if the teachers will but use them. There is a general complaint that teachers will not use them. Our board is very liberal in furnishing helps to the teacher, and all they ask in return is to have them well used. It is strange that among the uneducated and ignorant class of Cubans who have a wild and fanatic idea of freedom, thinking it means to do just as you please and not to be restricted by law whatever these are the people who want the absolute independence of Cuba. One thing the Cubans are very much opposed to is making them work with pick and shovel. They look at work with the eyes of an American tramp and have the same respect for it. A gang has been put to work cleaning the ground around the barracks. They are becoming Americanized very rapidly, having struck three times since they started to work. During the war the Spanish army was greatly increased by the native soldiers, known as volunteers. These soldiers were men who were given the choice of joining the Spanish army or going to prison. Many of them, not wishing to become political prisoners, enlisted, but their sympathies were on the other side.

The Lafayette memorial fund entertainment, to be held on Friday afternoon and evening, November 18, is a departure from the way of holding entertainments in our schools, inasmuch as all the schools will give a performance of the same time. The object of the fund is to admit the purchaser to any school in the city. As to the wisdom of giving the performance, it is not for us to say, but although a strong effort has been made to have it conflict as little as possible with the regular school work, still it does do it more or less, and the teacher who wishes for the rapid progress of her pupils wishes for the entertainment to be a thing of the past, and as a matter of course this remark applies to all teachers. While this is true as to the interruption to the school as a whole, these public performances are a source of profit to those taking part in them. It is only to be regretted that all cannot be permitted to have a "part and lot" in the matter.

The Pedagogue is just now reminded that he received a very nicely gotten up invitation to attend the wedding of Mr. Thomas Harding, the genial clerk of the circuit court of Gilmer county, who was married November 2, 1898, to Miss Effie Beatrice Wilson, of Spencer, W. Va. They will be at home after November 25, at Glenville. Many congratulations are extended to the happy couple. Mr. Harding was at one time a prominent teacher in our state. He is a graduate of the Glenville normal school, and for several years was first assistant teacher in the same school. He has many friends who also wish him "Bon Voyage." Well, Tom, it was time for you to do as you did, and that you may never regret the step you have taken is the wish of one of your very best friends. THE PEDAGOGUE.

LOAN AGENCY AT BRIDGEPORT.

The stable value of Bellaire, Bridgeport and Martin's Ferry warrants the establishment of a loan agency at Bridgeport. The Southern Ohio Loan and Trust Company has had a representative in these towns the last few days, investigating the resources and the stability of real estate values, for the purpose of making loans on farm and city property. After a careful investigation he has appointed R. T. Howell as agent of the company, through whom all applications for loans will be made. W. V. Campbell will be the company's attorney, and Miss Margaret Howell, treasurer. Fred Nelinger, mayor of Bridgeport, R. A. Bailey and Oswald Schick have been appointed appraisers.

From New Zealand.

REEFTON, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1898. I am very much pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

MR. HUBBARD'S STATEMENT.

He Corrects Erroneous Statements that Appeared in the Article in Saturday's Intelligencer, Relative to the Arrest of Mr. J. Elwood Hughes.

In connection with the arrest of Mr. J. Elwood Hughes, of Philadelphia, formerly of this city, Mr. W. P. Hubbard called at the Intelligencer office on Saturday afternoon, and dictated the following:

"The article in Saturday's Intelligencer relative to the arrest of Mr. J. Elwood Hughes, was based on statements made by Mr. Hughes and by a representative of the Register. No application was made to Mr. Hubbard or to the lady who is plaintiff in the suit of J. E. Hughes, nor to anyone on that side of the case."

"Many of the statements in that article are erroneous. Mr. Hughes was arrested at noon; not late in the afternoon. No hearing was set for Saturday last. Very shortly after the arrest, Mr. Hughes' counsel moved Judge Paul to discharge him, and that matter was heard at once, and his motion was overruled."

"Mr. W. P. Hubbard's connection relative to the matter is only that he has been counsel for nearly three years for the lady who holds Mr. Hughes' note. Suit was brought here some time ago against Mr. Hughes and other makers of the note, and he could not be served because he was a non-resident. The note became due January 2, 1898, and by deed dated January 3, 1898, Mr. Hughes transferred his real estate in this city. Shortly before that he transferred some stock which stood in his name. "Mr. Hughes had just about completed his deposition at the time of his arrest, having been engaged in giving it about a week. In that deposition he states he received nothing for the transfer of his real estate and was to receive nothing from the person to whom he deeded the house."

"Suit was brought some time ago in Philadelphia, and in that suit Mr. Hughes filed an affidavit that there had been no consideration for the making of the note. In the deposition just taken, Mr. Hughes states he received a life insurance policy from another maker of the note as collateral security to him for giving the note."

"Mr. Hughes could have been released from arrest at any time on giving security to be here after judgment and answer interrogatories."

Any misstatements made in the Intelligencer of Saturday morning were made without intention to prejudice anyone connected with the arrest of Mr. Hughes. The only reason that Mr. Hubbard was not seen at the time was that the article was written after midnight, and at that time it was not convenient to see Mr. Hubbard.

Mr. Hughes' Statement.

The following statement is made by Mr. Hughes:

"I am here in jail for purely a security debt to collect which the methods of the middle ages have been resorted to. Mr. Hubbard has made a lawyer's speech in the Sunday News, addressed to the public, not to the court, when he has also been making and will doubtless continue to make every effort to keep me in prison. I do regard him as persecuting me, but I shall leave my case to my counsel and the courts, and submit to the law as a citizen, 'not as able as Mr. Hubbard,' but just as much entitled to just treatment as he."

THE RAILROADS.

Receiver Oscar G. Murray, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, said yesterday that there was no truth in the story sent out from Chicago last week that there were any differences between himself and J. J. Hill over the appointment of a general manager to succeed W. M. Greene. He stated that nothing had occurred to give rise to any such rumor.

THIRTY NEW LOCOMOTIVES.
The thirty new freight locomotives ordered by the receivers of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad about three months ago, twenty of which are from the Baldwin Locomotive Works, and ten from the Pittsburgh Locomotive Works, have been delivered, and are now in service. These engines are the same type that have been very successfully used on the second division, between Cumberland and Baltimore, and over one hundred of them are now in service. They are the consolidated type, with 21x27-inch cylinders, and were constructed from designs furnished by the motive power department of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company.
